The Most Holy Trinity
June 12, 2022

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth.
Psalm 8

From the Desk of Father James

Dear Parishioners,

Today, Trinity Sunday, marks the end of the Easter Season and the beginning of Ordinary Time. Traditionally, the calendar of the liturgical year symbolizes the main events in the history of salvation. Advent represents the time of the Old Testament when the prophets foretold the coming of the Christ. Christmas, of course, is Christ's birth. The Sundays between Christmas and Lent represent the hidden years of Christ in the home of Mary and Joseph. Lent represents the three years of active ministry of Christ, leading, of course, to his death, resurrection, ascension, and sending of the Holy Spirit. This time after Pentecost, which we now call "Ordinary time" was formerly called simply the season "after Pentecost." It represents the age in which we currently live. This is an age in which we, the Church, having received the Holy Spirit, are in the process of proclaiming the Gospel to the ends of the earth. This season calls us to recognize that the history of salvation has not ended - we are living it. The action of God in sanctifying the world is not a thing of the past to be commemorated - it is a thing of the present which is still ongoing and must be lived. We indeed live in the age "after Pentecost."

At Pentecost the Church received the gift of the Holy Spirit which gave our forefathers the courage to be witnesses to Christ even to death, meriting the crown of martyrs. The same Holy Spirit has strengthened the saints over the past two thousand years to proclaim that Jesus Christ is raised. And the same Holy Spirit is still at work today in our lives. May we be open to the Spirit's promptings and play our part in this history of salvation.

In Christ,
Fr. James

The Diocese of Erie, along with all dioceses of the United States, has policies and procedures in place to address the national problem of child abuse and to aid in creating safe environments. The diocese is committed to on-going screening and training of paid or volunteer persons who have regular contact with our children and youth under the age of 18. It is committed to the yearly in-servicing and training of our children, youth and parents regarding touching-safety and safe environment. To see what the Diocese of Erie is doing to keep children and youth safe, check out <http://www.eriercd.org/protectyouth.htm> For more information, contact Cindy Zemick at the diocesan offices at 814-824-1195.

Listen: This summer, when children are out of school, meeting new people and going to new places, make sure that you talk to them often about their experiences and the people they've met. Listen carefully to your children. If possible, observe and get to know the other children and adults who are part of your children's summertime fun. Above all, communicate your safety concerns to your children. Make sure your children know they can come to you with any concerns they may have about the people they interact with. And if you hear of or observe behaviors that may be inappropriate, make sure to communicate your feelings to people who are in a position to intervene. Communication is key in creating and maintaining a safe environment all year round. For additional resources visit: www.eriercd.org/childprotection/

BIBLICAL ROOTS OF THE TRINITY

Today's readings show some biblical roots of what Christians would later call the Trinity. Proverbs showcases the role of Wisdom in the work of creation, portrayed as a reality outside of God but integrated into God's work of forming the heavens and the earth. We join the psalmist in sharing Wisdom's delight in God's handiwork: "O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth" (Psalm 8:2). In his letter to the Romans, Paul writes of peace with God through Jesus, and the love of God received through the Holy Spirit, distinguishing God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit while also displaying their abiding unity. Finally, in the farewell discourse from John's Gospel, Jesus—who had earlier spoken of himself as Son of the Father—promises his friends that they will receive the Spirit of truth that will teach and guide them after his departure.

The Most Holy Trinity

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. We say these words as we make the sign of the cross, the sign of God's saving love for us in Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit. God who created the heavens, earth, and all who dwell in it. Jesus Christ, through whom we are offered salvation and peace. The Holy Spirit, who breathes life, leads us to the truth, and strengthens us to live as God's holy people. On this Solemnity, let us pause to reflect upon the mystery of the Holy Trinity, three persons in one God. As we name the mystery, may we come to know God's love more deeply and live it more profoundly.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

The Most Holy Trinity

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

A Family Perspective

The words of Jesus in today's gospel, "I have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear it now", could be said by any parent. It can be frustrating because our desire to guide is often misinterpreted or poorly received. We cannot program our children. We can only teach, lead and trust the Spirit of truth will guide them.

The "Changelope" collection will be concluding on Father's Day, June 19. Please return your Changelope by this date. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Four Eucharistic processions planned for June 19
